

The American Institute of Architects (AIA)
Continuing Education Systems

Fundamental Design and Selection Criteria of Architectural Expansion Joint Systems

Provider: MM Systems Inc.
AIA Provider Number: J230
AIA Course Number: EJA1
Length: 1.0 Hours = 1 LU Hours

Description:

This session will cover all the fundamentals and requirement when designing an architectural expansion. Topics will include what is an expansion joint, types of movement to account for, environmental implications, code and life safety, and aesthetic considerations available.

Learning Objectives:

- Trip hazards / ADA (Americans with Disabilities Act) requirements.
 - Proper selection / movement / seismic considerations.
 - Waterproof and load bearing characteristics.
 - Aesthetic choices.
-

For more information or to schedule, please contact:

Debbie Sterling
Construction Sales Group sales@constructionsalesgroup.com
215.321.5300